Carl D. Gray is Assistant General Counsel for Huntington Ingalls Industries (HII) and Deputy Chief Counsel at HII's Newport News Shipbuilding (NNS) division. Based in Newport News, VA, Carl has overall responsibility for legal issues arising from the VCS, SSN(X) and Submarine Fleet Support Programs. Carl also supports Contracts & Pricing, Engineering & Design, and Business Management at NNS and handles Environmental and Intellectual Property law issues arising at the division.

Carl graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1997. Following law school, he served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable J. Calvitt Clarke, Jr. in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. In the fall of 1998, Carl joined the law firm of Hunton & Williams LLP (now Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP) in Norfolk, Virginia. His practice involved complex commercial litigation with an emphasis on government contracts, maritime, and construction law issues. Carl remained at the firm until 2011 when he joined HII.

Licensed in Virginia, Carl is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, U.S. Court of Federal Claims, and Virginia Supreme Court. He is a member of the Virginia State Bar, Environmental Law Institute and Association of Corporate Counsel.
